

ORDER FORM

Dear Parents:

Young Authors, Miles and William Rabun are coming to our school on _____ to talk about their book written and published when they were six (6) and eight (8) years old. They are now, seven (7) and nine (9) and will share insights about their writing and journey to publish a book. This is a chance to order copies of their book, My Grandma's Backyard, at a discount and get them autographed/personalized for your child. Please return this form with payment to your child's teacher by _____. If you'd like for Miles and William to autograph a book to a particular person, please PRINT the person's name next to the order. If writing a check, please make it payable to: _____.

My Grandma's Backyard (Xlibris, 2007)

In this Carolina Parent featured Book for Kids, two brothers talk about the critters, plants and other things they enjoy in their grandmother's backyard. Appropriate for all ages.

*In my grandmother's backyard there are many things to see and do, there are flowers, bugs and a turtle name Speedy, too. Come along as two young authors, Miles and William Rabun, take you on an adventure in their new book My Grandma's Backyard with illustrations by Tony Moore. As the summer winds down and kids get ready to head back to school, we get a glimpse into the yearly summer rituals of two brothers. They enjoy reciting poetry, putting on skits, and skipping stones, all in the comfort and familiarity of their Drandma's—"Yes, with a D"—backyard. But the fun doesn't stop there: The book also includes activities and an answer key for the budding Einstein. – *NoirBaby.com
